In algebra, a cubic function is a function of the form $y = ax^3 + bx^2 + cx + d$ in which a is nonzero.. Setting $f(x) = 0$ produces a cubic equation of the form $ax^3 + bx^2 + cx + d = 0$. The solutions of this equation are called roots of the polynomial $f(x)$. If all of the coefficients a , b , c , and d of the cubic equation are real numbers, then it has at least one real root (this is true for all odd degree polynomials).

Writing Algebra Equations Finding the Equation of a Line Given Two Points. We have written the equation of a line in slope intercept form and standard form. We have also written the equation of a line when given slope and a point. Now we are going to take it one step further and write the equation of a line when we are only given two points that are on that line.
