Performance management begins with purposes and objectives. It has been long established that a fundamental requirement for control is the existence of objectives, which are the used to evaluate performance (Otley and Berry, 1980). Organizations have to meet multiple and sometimes competing objectives (Chenhall, 2003), and these are typically set out by senior managers to meet key stakeholders ...

English trust law concerns the creation and protection of asset funds, which are usually held by one party for another's benefit. Trusts were a creation of the English law of property and obligations, but also share a history with countries across the Commonwealth and the United States. Trusts developed when claimants in property disputes were dissatisfied with the common law courts and ...
