Note: But, before we begin looking at it, first of all, we repeat again and again: do not blindly believe anything or merely take in on faith. What is said here is just a particular way to look at things, but it does not imply that you are forced to agree with anything said here, or anywhere for that matter.

Kafka's last and longest novel, The Castle, was written in the shadow of death, and its snow-covered landscape contains no hint of green. Kafka didn't finish this novel, and he didn't want it to be published. Why did he write it? One suspects that he wrote it out of sheer love of literature, and out of a need to release what was on his mind.
