- [Man] When you're working with large lists, you might want to insert subtotals, based on break points within the data. Now, on this particular worksheet here, the data's not quite in the order I want, but here's what I'm envisioning: I've got about 20 or 25 departments in this list, goes to about 700 rows. I'd like to see a subtotal inserted automatically at the end of each department.

Use the Subtotal command to analyze data with single- or ...
